

Australian Dyslexia Association Solutions for those that Learn Differently

Out of Interest:

The Australian Dyslexia Association (ADA is an incorporated non-profit Association and an Australian Registrable Body working nationally across every state of Australia to better the literacy outcomes of all students with dyslexia or a related difference (or at risk). The ADA is an Official Global Partner with the International Dyslexia Association (www.interdys.org)

The ADA Vital Aims include the following:

Providing up to date research on evidence based practices for Dyslexia Identification & Teaching
Maintaining a strong connection with the world leading Dyslexia Associations (Global Partnership with the IDA-International Dyslexia Association)

The President of the Australian Dyslexia Association is a Global Committee member of the IDA Global caucus and provides feedback on the ADA's role in Australia at the annual IDA conference along with reciprocal information from world leaders in the field of dyslexia.

ADA's active role in developing teacher training standards and dyslexia friendly initiatives for Australian schools/teachers:

ADA Accreditation for teacher training courses- Evidence based Multisensory structured language approaches (A direct and explicit pedagogy)

ADA Professional Recognition of teacher training in a multisensory structured language approach
Providing ADA Dyslexia Friendly Initiatives to Schools, Tertiary Ed and Workplace training

ADA School Accreditation for MSL Units- who provide direct and explicit multisensory language instruction

Continued professional support and monitoring of progress of all MSL Units in Australian Schools

ADA Working within a Network:

Providing a supportive link for schools and parents:

Individual Dyslexia Screening and Assessment based on diagnostic and objective evaluation of spoken and written language.

ADA provides a written report that is directed at effective instruction not only classroom provisions.

Australian National Dyslexia Working Party:

The ADA supports the aims of the National Dyslexia Working Party.
